Eddie, I've been great knowing you this year. Best luck always. Margaret Odum

Dear Eddie,
I have known you all your life and have always thought the world of you and Lana. You are both wonderful girls, and I might add very pretty girls.
I wish you all the luck and happiness in the entire amount of your life.

Love from your cousin,
Aline

foreword

Youth is unconsciously growing, building, changing every second of every day of every year. And "as the swift seasons roll," a new image is formed, unnoticed until it blossoms into maturity, leaving behind the past. But the past is never truly left behind, for it blends into the present so closely that it is not visible. The truths taught, the opportunities presented, the constant growth in knowledge and democracy are representative of the Greenville High school that lives and grows with its students as they build their lives.

In this continuous expansion, students are given opportunities to delve into new facts, associate with friends, participate in student government, contribute to activities, and prepare for coming years. They pour their energy, talents, and dreams into linking today with tomorrow.

The Nautilus staff has attempted to portray this development through a theme of "Build Thee," taken from Oliver Wendell Holmes' famous poem, "The Chambered Nautilus," for which this yearbook was named.

ALICE FAYE DAVIS

ALICE FAYE DAVIS, a member of the junior class, lost her life in an automobile accident March 15. GHS misses her as a friend and companion whose cheerful disposition and sweet smile enriched the lives of many, they find comfort in the Scriptures assurance and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it."

in memoriam...

MISS LOIS B. GREEN

IT HAS BEEN SAID THAT one who does not talk about himself has plenty of time to think about others. These words could have been written exclusively for Miss Lois B. Green, Latin and English teacher at GHS for twenty-nine years, who died February 7. Never desiring publicity or fanfare, she devoted her life simply and quietly to helping those about her. "She found peace in love's unselfishness."

THE GHS FACULTY, under the guidance of Principal Fred L. Fowler, is well prepared to teach students "to build." Thirty teachers have obtained masters degrees, and forty others hold bachelors degrees. Twenty-seven colleges and universities are represented; they range from local Furman university, to the Universities of Nebraska, Texas, and New York. Nine state schools are included. Thirty-eight faculty members acquired their degrees at South Carolina colleges, and ten at North Carolina schools. Furman leads with fifteen, and USC follows with ten graduates.

*There is a school we love in Dixie Land,
'Tis Greenville High for which we take our stand.
There we are taught to fill in life a place,
There learn to do, to dare, to run the race.*

*Trueness and purity our colors show,
Red as the crimson and white as the snow.
Loyal to our motto may we e'er be,
Only through truth shall we be free*

*Though we may wander far, whote'er our lot,
We'll ever keep the sweet lessons you have taught.
Our hearts will turn to thee in tenderness,
And pray God bless you, dear old GHS.*

the nautilus staff 1960

Each year, a staff produces the NAUTILUS, GHS yearbook. Students choose the theme, plan and arrange the contents according to their own ideas, and assume the financial problems involved.

Again this year the staff has attempted to portray life at "the school on the hill" as her students build their lives and futures day by day. Pictures and copy have captured important moments at pep meetings, ball games, clubs, assemblies and talent shows. Memorable shots of the beautiful campus and outstanding classwork add their charm.

Taken together, these are life at Greenville High school.

The mighty Red Raiders met their first defeat at the hands of the undefeated Greenwood Emeralds as the Raiders could not hold the speedy Emerald backs. The Greenville defense, led by Peter Slipp and Jerry Graves, defied the Greenwood attack until a fumble and an unsuccessful attempt for a first down spelled the difference

* * *

The Mooremen came back the next week with a win over highly rated Daniel High school. It was a bruising defensive game with Greenville's Alton Buddin making the only score of the game.

The capacity crowd, the high spirits, and the unusual warmth marked the day of the big Turkey Day classic with the long standing rival, Parker.

Although sparked with victory of last year, the GHS Red Raiders were plagued by Parker intercepting passes and their fine defensive play. Despite the disadvantage of injuries, the Mooremens played a thrilling game with Captain Peter Stipp intercepting a Parker pass and fullback Roy Crisp going over left tackle for the Greenville score of the day coaches endure tense moments as raiders fight for td

once a raider, always a raider

IN 1931, JAMES A. MOORE returned to his alma mater where he had been a standout in three sports: football, basketball, and track. At GHS he served as assistant to Coach J. H. Speer until 1941, when he was made head basketball coach. During the twelve years that followed, GHS won six state basketball championships and amassed 175 wins with only 41 losses.

Coach Speer retired in 1948; in 1949 Mr. Moore became athletic director and head football coach, a job he has done exceedingly well. He has compiled 72 wins, 33 losses, and six ties.

For his ability and leadership in sports, Coach Moore has earned many honors: assistant coach 1952 Shrine Bowl; head coach, 1957 Rotary Bowl; and head coach, 1959 Shrine Bowl. An additional honor was bestowed upon him at the football banquet this year when present and former Raiders and other friends gave him a beautiful silver service.

His influence in GHS, Greenville and South Carolina cannot be doubted. He exemplifies former president Herbert Hoover's belief, "Next to religion, the greatest single factor for the good in America in recent years has been sports."

1856-1960

The sometimes fabled Diamonds of antiquity carried no greater charm of satisfaction than the Diamonds we are showing now. Come in and see them when you will. Let our 104 years of diamond handling be yours to command as we tell you the things about Diamonds that will allow you to draw hairlines of distinction in grading your application. Then let our enviable Diamond buying privileges be put to work to SAVE YOU MONEY in the Diamond purchases you from time to time make. We are not talking at random when we advise you that this is a good time, especially at the favoring prices we are now able to offer to buy DIAMONDS YOU MUST BUY VALUE IN DIAMONDS IF WE MAKE THE SALE.

Our Complete Jewelry Manufacturing Facilities - right on the premises - are yours to make use of, no matter on how quick call - for remounting, for modernizing of jewelry pieces of cuttings and the like

Dear Eddie,

Reserved for Nancy

It has been a pleasure knowing you this year and I hope we get a class or two together next year. By the way, I'm not really a "may" in spirit but not crazy. We have had loads of fun, as well as quite a few bad times, this year. I hope you get "hooked" within the next year or year. Hope you get to go to Conn. this summer or next summer, one. Best of luck and happiness to a real cute & sweet girl. May you always have the best of everything ^{COMPLIMENTS} in the future. Please excuse my writing. ^{OF} it's because we are riding, as you know. See you next year if this summer probably.

Love ya always,

To get at each thing. But

1. The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the cold. It was a sharp contrast to the warm air of the airport. I shivered as I walked towards the entrance. The second thing I noticed was the smell. It was a mix of old wood and fresh paint. I had never smelled anything like it before. The third thing I noticed was the silence. It was a heavy, oppressive silence that made me feel like I was the only person in the world. I looked around and saw that everyone else was looking at me with curiosity. I felt a little awkward, but I tried to ignore it. I walked towards the entrance and saw a man in a suit standing there. He looked at me and smiled. He said, "Welcome to the museum. I am Mr. Smith. I will be your guide today." I nodded and followed him. We walked through a series of rooms, each filled with different types of art. I was fascinated by everything I saw. Mr. Smith was very knowledgeable and he answered all of my questions. We finally reached a large room at the end of the hallway. It was filled with a collection of paintings. Mr. Smith pointed to one of the paintings and said, "This is the most famous painting in the collection. It was painted by a famous artist who lived in the 18th century. It is called 'The Last Supper'." I looked at the painting and saw a group of people sitting around a table. I was amazed by the detail and the colors. I had never seen anything like it before. Mr. Smith smiled and said, "I hope you enjoyed the tour. If you have any more questions, please feel free to ask me. I will be happy to help you." I thanked him and walked out of the museum. I felt like I had just discovered a new world. I was so happy and I felt like I had found something special. I was so lucky to have found this museum. I was so lucky to have found Mr. Smith. I was so lucky to have found 'The Last Supper'.

Best Wishes for the
